The Apothecaries' retail pharmacy, which had been located on the northern side of the COURTYARD, gained a separate entrance on Water Lane (now Black Friars Lane) in 1823. Its steps and wrought-iron railings are still evident. The COLONNADE in the courtyard where the main door, surmounted by the Society's Arms, is now located was enclosed in 1929.

Welcome to Apothecaries Hall, one of the oldest Livery Halls in the City of London, nestled in the back streets behind St Paul's Cathedral. With the first-floor rooms remaining as they were in 1670, the Grade I listed Hall is a portal into another time. Apothecaries Hall comprises four historic spaces with a most magical atmosphere and filled with fascinating artefacts, perfect for dinners, receptions, conferences and other special occasions.
