Eos Press has joined forces with Pagan Publishing to bring back Delta Green, the critically acclaimed roleplaying game of the Lovecraft Mythos in the modern age. Packed full of secret organizations, shadowy conspiracies and alien invaders, Delta Green now comes to you as a handsome hardbound book, durable and with all the material you need to play using Wizards of the Coast's Call of Cthulhu d20.

Delta Green (d20) - Call of Cthulhu - Noble Knight Games

Delta Green is slightly more simplified with a straightforward concept which makes it easier for parties to mesh together with a consistent tone. Call of Cthulhu is more flexible, crunchy, and more difficult to run though with the benefit being a ton of freedom.

Call of Cthulhu 7th Ed vs Delta Green : rpg

Delta Green tells the story of the Cthulhu Mythos in the modern age. Conspiracies abound, and this is one of the deadliest: Delta Green is a handful of men and women who use the resources of the government to fight a secret, illegal--some would say treasonous--war against monstrosities which threaten their world.

Someone recently asked on FB why Call of Cthulhu (and Delta Green) which uses BRP was so un-intuitive, requiring low rolls for skill checks and combat. He thought that d20 was much more intuitive with adding your skill level and bonuses to your die roll to meet or beat a specific target number. Actually, BRP was more consistent and intuitive than d20 for a very long time. It's all a matter of ...

In 1997 Delta Green was born as a sourcebook and setting for Call of Cthulhu, introducing a setting for secret federal agents into the universe of the greater system. And in 2016 it was re-released as a standalone system, published by Arc Dream Publishing after a successful funding campaign on Kickstarter.

RPG Spotlight: Delta Green - Bell of Lost Souls

While Call of Cthulhu focuses on stories set in the 1920s era germane to the original H.P. Lovecraft stories, Delta Green imagines what that world might be like in the 1990s. The primary organization of the game is Delta Green, a conspiracy of government agents and others in the know who know of paranormal forces, and oppose them.
