By Jacqueline Woodson. Previous Next . Feathers Summary. Everything begins in Feathers when a new boy shows up at Frannie's school. This is a big deal because the boy (1) has long hair, and (2) is white. Frannie's school is all black, even though it's the 1970s and segregation is technically over.

Feathers Summary | Shmoop

During a winter full of surprises, good and bad, Frannie starts seeing a lot of things in a new light—her brother Sean's deafness, her mother's fear, the class bully's anger, her best friend's faith and her own desire for "the thing with feathers." Jacqueline Woodson once again takes readers on a journey into a young girl's heart and reveals the pain and the joy of learning to look beneath the surface.
