Gone, by Mo Hayder, is the fifth book in a series featuring Bristol DI Jack Caffery, and the first of hers I read. Despite four books of back story, I felt no lack or loss for jumping in at the wrong end, as Hayder gave just enough relevant information to offer a bit of depth and context without flogging a reader with past events.

Gone By Mo Hayder

This is my introduction to Mo Hayder. I have just downloaded a second of her books. Interested? Yes I am. The characters are plausible. The story is interesting and a little scary, it is a part of a series and the most recent available on Audible. So perhaps, in my not being familiar with what has gone before I may be losing something.
