Redeem All examines the surprising intersection of American evangelicalism and tech innovation. Corrina Laughlin looks at the evangelical Christians who are invested in imagining, using, hacking, adapting, and creating new media technologies for religious purposes. She finds that entrepreneurs, pastors, missionaries, and social media celebrities interpret the promises born in Silicon Valley through the framework of evangelical culture and believe that digital media can help them (to paraphrase Steve Jobs) put their own dent in the universe. Laughlin introduces readers to “ startup churches ” hoping to reach a global population, entrepreneurs coding for a deeper purpose, digital missionaries networking with mobile phones, and Christian influencers and podcasters seeking new forms of community engagement. Redeem All reveals how evangelicalism has changed as it eagerly adopts the norms of the digital age.

There is a silence that is killing us. Millions are impacted by rape and sexual violence and are plagued with struggles they can't talk about. The time is now to start the healing and Redeem the Silence. "Redeem the Silence is a powerful expose on the subject of rape in the 21st century. With stories that are raw and riveting, the dialogue tears at one's emotions. A subject that is almost overpowering, it is almost unspeakable. But that is the point of Sherrill's book: the subject of rape must not be unspeakable because it happens every day while our silence protects the guilty and torments the victims. Sherrill Nielsen tells the truth about sexual violation and blows the cover off cultural taboos." JIM COFFARO, Senior Pastor at New Song Foursquare Church, San Jose, CA "A pathway to healing! Authentic, no formulas, compassionate, real life guidance for those who have been abused, and those who love them." DR. DAVID SMITH, Lead Navigator, Theodyssey Group "Gripping, insightful, Sherrill Nielsen counsels from a survivor's perspective." Manage your time the way Jesus managed his with a biblical antidote to swamped to-do lists and hurried schedules. “ A highly practical road map. ” —Mark Batterson, New York Times bestselling author and lead pastor of National Community Church Despite the overwhelming amount of resources for time management and work-life balance, the ability to cultivate the efficiency and equilibrium needed to manage all our worthy pursuits can often feel frustratingly out of reach. The reason for our struggle is that productivity and time-management systems focus on individual habits rather than more meaningful and lasting lifestyle changes. But as it turns out, there is a better way to reach our full potential. We don ’ t need just another approach to changing our habits. What we need is an operating system that takes into account the full scope of our lives. In these pages, bestselling author Jordan Raynor presents this system, using seven powerful time- management principles drawn from the example of how Jesus lived: 1. Start with the Word: Find meaningful connection with the author of time daily. 2. Let Your Yes Be Yes: Accept only the commitments you can fulfill. 3. Dissent from the Kingdom of Noise: Create room for silence, stillness, and reflection. 4. Prioritize Your Yeses: Confidently maintain your commitments. 5. Accept Your “ Unipresence ” : Focus on one important thing at a time. 6. Embrace Productive Rest: Live the God-designed rhythms of rest which are productive for our goals and souls. 7. Eliminate All Hurry: Embrace productive busyness while ruthlessly eliminating hurry from our lives. With these principles, you ’ ll see how Jesus managed his time on earth and how he responded to human constraints much like the ones you face today. More than that, you ’ ll discover corresponding practices that will help you embrace the best, most Christlike version of yourself possible: purposeful, present, and wildly productive.
