And sure enough - there was a "stripy-spiky lionfish", just like in the book! I couldn't believe at his age that he could make the connection between the picture in the book and the real thing, but he did! Obviously, this book has real educational value. I recommend it to ALL parents! And I'm here to buy a few other "Nature Trail" books today...

Ocean Pines Nature Trail - Whitehorse Park - Just Walk ... The Ocean Trails are truly a hidden gem. We hiked on a sunny winter day and it was still quite lovely, as there had been some recent rain. Certainly well worth the effort and time. It really is not that long a walk, compared to the other trails in the Palos Verdes Peninsula. You get some amazing views, and if you are a golfer, you can watch them hit.

Bogs are low-lying areas where cranberries grow on vines. The seven acres of bogs at The Nature Trail at Patriot Place presented by Ocean Spray are real, functioning bogs. In fact, they were originally planted in 1929 and have been cultivated by growers ever since! The area around The Nature Trail includes a "cranberry wetland system."
