Solidarity Unionism: Rebuilding the Labor Movement from ...

The debate on how to revive the troubled U.S. labor movement has been around for decades. Labor activists generally believe that much greater rank-and-file democracy and workplace militancy is the key to labor renewal. However, an essential perspective that is usually missing from the conversation is well represented by Staughton Lynd ' s

Similarly, a great deal of solidarity was built between different coffee shop workers who are fighting to form unions. Most notably, workers at Colectivo Coffee Roasters have been working with IBEW Local 494 since March to establish wall-to-wall union representation in all 21 cafes, production and bakery locations in Milwaukee, Madison and Chicago.
