What's the deal with the Take Me With You brand? Just like it says on the side of the bottle, Take Me With You is a growing community of wine lovers and travelers sharing their experiences with family, friends, and beyond. I envision a more immersive experience than just hammering back some glasses of chardonnay.

This is a well-written and very moving book. The newly-developing connections between family members across a 90 mile body of water give poignant life to "Take Me With You." The secondary story, and to my mind, the most important part, is that the book lets a breathe of fresh air into America's view of a sealed country.

How to Use Take With You and Bring With You: 5 Steps

Take Me, Take Me with You is a creepy creepy read. very well done creepiness, as you'd expect from Joyce Carol Oates (writing under a pseudonym here as Lauren Kelly). it's the sort of book that, if you grew up in a violent, booze-soaked household, might cause you to dive for whatever you use to self-medicate.
