Varisco's Reading Orientalism: Said and the Unsaid is one such attempt. If the Said apologists are finding it increasingly difficult to overlook the rhetoric of Said's Orientalism in the wake of an ever-growing number of works that have exposed its faults—culminating with Ibn Warraq's A Defense of the West, they show no signs of going gentle into the inevitable good night, and the book by Varisco, a professor of anthropology at Hofstra University, attempts mightily to buoy up Said's ...

The Unsaid is a 2001 American thriller/drama film directed by Tom McLoughlin and starring Andy García that was released in 2001. It is also known under the name The Ties That Bind and its working title Sins of the Father. The film was released straight to DVD in the US, UK, and Canada but premiered in theaters in other parts of Europe and Asia. The film follows Michael Hunter's struggle to cope with his son's suicide and his attempt to rehabilitate Thomas Caffey, who reminds him of his own son.
