The WTO is celebrating its 25th anniversary, and so is the Sanitary and Phyto-Sanitary (SPS) Agreement. The world has changed dramatically since 1995, but food safety was and continues to be a major concern for all of the WTO's 164 Members. For that reason, and to foster safe trade to satisfy the nutritional needs of all, the SPS Agreement will continue to be central to WTO's role in facilitating trade in safe food across borders.
